

2018 AALL ACT REPORT

As at August 2018 the ACT had 27 current AALL members, with a further 13 non-members on our mailing list. Numbers have increased from 2017.

ACT Institutions:

- The Australian National University
- University of Canberra
- UNSW
- Australian Catholic University
- Canberra Institute of Technology

Current branch representatives:

- Tess Snowball (The Australian National University)
- Lesley Cioccarelli (Canberra Institute of Technology)

The ACT chapter of AALL held three Branch meetings in 2018.

Date/venue (host)	Participants	Events /agenda	Remarks
05.04.2018 University of Canberra	13 representing UNSW Canberra, ANU, UC, ACU, CIT	Branch Meeting	First meeting to update on activities in each of our institutions and to meet new members.
22.05. 2018 CIT Canberra	15 representing UNSW Canberra, ANU, UC, CIT	Branch Meeting	Diagnostic tests – do you use them? If so which ones and how are they used? Feedback – what’s the role of ALL advisers in assisting academics to give good feedback? How can we help to improve the quality of feedback on written tasks?
30.08.2018 UNSW Canberra campus	12 participants ANU, UNSW Canberra, ANU, ANU College, CIT, ACU	Valuing the one-to-one consultation in our neoliberalist reality	We shared practice on our 1-1 teaching and discussed how we evaluate and report on our work.